Daily Pattern for Home Use

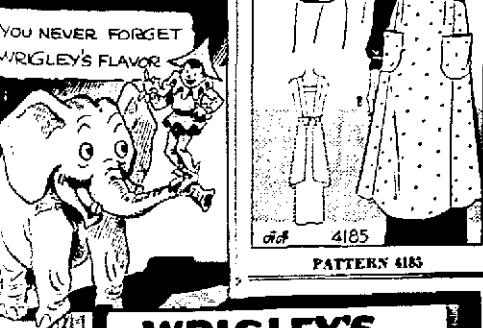

BY ANNE ADAMS

TWO APRONS FROM SINGLE PATTERN ARE WILLING, FAST-WORKING TEAM. Ten chances to one, you're needing a pair of these year-round aprons right now! If so, stop procrastinating and order the pattern that gives you double value—two aprons for the price of one. Anne Adams designed the one above for possessing, the one below for bearing the brunt of kitchen duties. Who wouldn't perk up at sight of you in a style as pretty as "A," of brightly flowered dimity or batiste, with an ever-so-smart ruffling? And who could beat you at cake-baking when you're dressed for the job in a good cover apron with the fine points of "B"? The "adder" back keeps straps from slipping.

Pattern 4185 is available in sizes small, medium, large and extra large. Small size apron A takes 1 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric; apron B takes 1 1/4 yards.

Send fifteen cents (5c) in color or stamps (coins preferred) for the Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number.

BE SURE TO STATE SIZE Just out! Our new Anne Adams Pattern Book, presenting the most interesting in Fall fashions, the latest in frocks, fabrics and gift suggestions. You'll find glamorous fashions for after-dusk, glistening daytime models, cheery house dresses and kiddies' clothes. Styles, too, fit the "would be slender" woman.

BY CHARLES HOSKINS II Miss Hoff was the stand out of yesterday's racing, leading the Marion track, far surprised by an estimated crowd of 5,000 who filled the grand stand. Peter Hoff and watched from the grand stand. Peter Hoff and Gale, the track's best, took the lead in the first race, but were overtaken by Bobby Nichols and Ken Hollis. Gale turned the pace in which all of the first three heats of the 2:15 trot were run.

Horse around. In his first race, Gale found well in the seven race with a mile and a half to go. He won the race with a time of 1:40. Miss Hoff, the two-year-old pace was called because of the late start. The stake was to be added to this afternoon's race ing card.

The Houghton Slinky stake was the opening race of the day and by starting time the stands was filled with an overflow crowd which lined along the fence at either side. Mac Direct the pole horse led through both laps and outcame the strong bid of June Jill which moved into second place on the back stretch. June Jill broke heading into the turn and finished last, with Spencer Gale, Elizabeth Jones and Friskey following the leaders.

Mac Direct's time was 2:18 1/4 but the second heat was turned in 2:14 1/2 with Spencer Gale leading the way. The latter horse started in second position took the lead at the south turn and held it to the finish. Spencer Gale, Friskey and Elizabeth Jones were in that order
